Notes and Low Rate Bonds Would Keep Up the Gold Reserve—Plan for Currency Reform—General
Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—"There are just two things necessary to be done before adjournment to better the financial situation. First, we should either increase the revenue, or, failing in that, issue short term treasury notes running one, two and three years, bearing interest at 2 per cent or 2½ per cent per annum. They are really exchequer notes, such as they have in England, anticipatory of revenue. They would for the present completely cover the deficit in the revenue. Perhaps this new tariff law may within that period provide sufficient revenue and enough additional to pay these exchequer notes, which I would limit, say, to $50,000,000. If the tariff law continues to fail to furnish an adequate revenue, there would be plenty of time in the one, two, or three years that the notes run to provide the revenue required. These notes would be helpful and would not go to swell the amount of permanent indebtedness as would bonds. In the second place, we should authorize the issue of bonds bearing not more than 3 per cent per annum, in addition to those authorized by the resumption act, for the purpose of maintaining the parity between gold and paper. Let the legal tender greenbacks and treasury notes alone. Do nothing else but the two things I suggest and I think it will be found the situation is altered."

This suggestion was given yesterday by Senator Allison of Iowa, an admitted master of finance and one of the acknowledged leaders of the republicans in the senate. It is thought to be the first authoritative indication of the coming republican financial policy. At the same time Senator Sherman has also come to the front, and has put his plans in the form of a bill, which was introduced in the senate yesterday and referred to the finance committee.

He proposes to permit the secretary of the treasury to issue any of the bonds provided for by the resumption act, or 3 per cent registered bonds, redeemable in coin after five years. The purpose of these issues is expressly said to be "to provide for the deficiency in the revenues." As an alternative, the secretary is to be authorized to issue coin notes redeemable after five years bearing 3 per cent interest, and in denominations of from $5 to $100. Senator Sherman's scheme also involves the issue of national bank notes up to the par value of bonds deposited. It is the belief of the republicans that the present tariff law can not and will not furnish sufficient revenue. If that is true the next congress would have to provide the necessary funds by a beer tax or some similar expedient, and it would be perfectly feasible then to provide not only enough to meet the ordinary running expenses, but to redeem these exchequer notes as well if it should be deemed necessary.

Among the currency schemes proposed in the house was one by Representative Wadsworth of New York, which provided for 2 per cent bonds and the retirement of the legal tenders and national bank notes equal to the par of bonds.

CURRENCY REFORM PLANS.

Pugh and Sherman Present Measures—
Pension Appropriation Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Another interesting chapter to the financial question was given in the senate yesterday when Mr. Sherman presented an emergency currency bill and Mr. Pugh offered a measure in the same line, supplementing it with a speech on the impotency and inaction of the senate in the face of a grave emergency. This was but the brief prelude to a day spent with appropriation bills. The pension bill appropriating $141,000,000 was passed with two important amendments, one making $6 the lowest rate for pension disability and another repealing the present law cutting off the pensions of non-residents.

Senator Pugh presented what he regarded as a solution to the present lack of government revenue. The senator varied the usual custom of introducing a bill by reading the full text of his measure with great deliberateness and then commenting on it. The bill provides for the immediate issue of $100,000,000 of treasury notes to meet deficiencies, these notes to be redeemable in coin and to be constantly re-issued. It further directs the coinage of the seigniorage and the deposit of silver bullion from American mints.

Mr. Sherman (rep., Ohio) as soon as Mr. Pugh had closed, rose and presented his measure, which was referred without comment to the finance committee.

In presenting a report on a pension bill Mr. Gallinger took occasion to criticize severely the past utterances of Mr. Cleveland as to the frauds existing in the pension system. The pension appropriation bill was taken up and Mr. Palmer (dem., Ill.) answered the criticisms made by Mr. Gallinger.

Mr. Hawley (rep., Conn.) also stated his objections to the present administration of the bureau. He offered an amendment making $6 the lowest rate for disabilities. Mr. Lodge severely arraigned the pension office for delays. Mr. Quay said he had found business at the pension office dispatched quite as effectively as it had been under previous administrations.

Mr. Brice asked what increase in pension expenditures would result from adopting the Hawley amendment. Mr. Gallinger replied $1,000,000 would enter the account. Mr. Peffer offered an amendment fixing $8 as the minimum pension rate, but it was ruled out of order.

Mr. Voorhees spoke vigorously for liberality to pensioners. Mr. Allan then moved to make $12 the lowest pension rate, but it was ruled out of order.

The Hawley amendment making $6 the minimum was then adopted without division.

Mr. Gallinger offered an amendment repealing the law cutting off the pensions of non-residents of the United States. The amendment was adopted. The bill as thus amended was passed. It carries $141,000,000.

The army bill appropriating $23,250,000 was taken up, and Mr. Blackburn explained the plan for concentrating troops at large posts. Mr. Manderson urged the necessity of army centers along the Canadian border. The British government had already established extensive rendezvous on the Pacific coast, and it behooved the United States to make adequate preparation in the Puget Sound region. The consideration of the bill was not concluded.

OLNEY'S LABOR PLAN.

McGann Introduces a New Compulsory Arbitration Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—A labor arbitration plan has been devised by Attorney-General Olney and was introduced yesterday by Chairman McGann of the house committee on labor. It is intended as a substitute for the one framed by Labor Commissioner Carlisle D. Wright as a result of the labors of the Chicago strike commission. In several points the bill is more far reaching in its propositions than any that has been brought forward. The terms "railroad" and "employee" are defined in the bill, and the latter class includes those working on cars operated by the carrier under lease, making the carrier responsible for their acts as though they were employed directly by him.

The wages paid to employees, it is stipulated, shall be reasonable and just. In case of wage controversies the chairman of the interstate commerce commission and the chairman of the labor commission will communicate with the parties endeavoring to effect an amicable settlement, and if this mediation fails the controversy may be submitted to a board of arbitration of which the chairman of the interstate commerce commission shall be chairman and which shall consist also of one commissioner chosen by the employer and one by the labor organization to which the employees directly interested belong; or if they belong to more than one, by that one which specially represents employees of the same grade and class and engaged in service of the same nature as the employees in the controversy. Where two or more classes of employees are interested their organizations shall agree upon their representative.

MUST TELL OF TRUST'S ACTS.

Demurrers of Reluctant Witnesses Before
Senate Committee Overruled.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—All demurrers of the defendants to the indictments returned by the grand jury against President Havemeyer and Secretary Searles of the American Sugar Refinery company, broker Seymour of New York, and Correspondents E. J. Edwards and J. O. Shriver were overruled yesterday by Judge Cole in the Criminal court and the defendants required to plead to the indictments. The cases will now probably go direct to the United States Supreme court on a writ of habeas corpus following a plea of not guilty by the defendants. It is said the defendants will be surrendered by their bondsmen, plead guilty, and be placed technically in jail, being under the custody of the United States marshal, and that the next procedure will be to apply to the United States Supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus.

Indian Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the house yesterday the senate amendments to the urgent deficiency bill were disagreed to and the bill sent to conference. After some important business the house went into committee of the whole for the further consideration of the Indian appropriation bill. General debate was closed and the bill was considered under the five minute rule for amendment. Consideration of the bill was not completed when the house adjourned.

The senate amendments to the urgent deficiency bill were disagreed to and the bill sent to conference.

To Increase Naval Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The naval appropriation bill, which will be reported to the full committee of the house to-day, will contain provisions for adding to the navy the three battleships and the torpedo boats which Secretary Herbert recommended. The cost of the battleships is limited to $4,000,000, and one of them is to be built on the Pacific coast. The total appropriation carried by this bill will be much larger than that made last year.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The resolution for the impeachment of Judge Ricks was reported to the committee this morning.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Eugene V. Debs and his associates will not be liberated for several days, if at all. The supreme court has denied the petition for a writ of error, Chief Justice Fuller delivered the opinion, and said that it was the unanimous opinion of the court that the writ would not lie.

With reference to the application for habeas corpus leave was granted to file a petition and a rule entered making it returnable on the 28th instant. There was no written opinion and the proceedings were confined to the briefest possible statement.

Attorney Darrow was present as the representatives of Debs and his associates, and Mr. Whitney represented the government. Mr. Darrow construed the order with reference to the habeas corpus as in effect the granting of the petition, but other attorneys present expressed the opinion that the order left the matter in its present status until the argument could be heard on the 28th.

FORECLOSE ON PACIFIC BONDS.

Petition Is to Be Filed in St. Louis Tomorrow Morning.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 18.—A petition will be presented to Judge Sanborn in St. Louis to-morrow for foreclosure of the first mortgage on the main line of the Union Pacific railroad company. The petition is supposed to have been prepared at the instance of the trustees of the first mortgage bondholders in the office of Winslow S. Pierce of New York. It is supposed to embody the fact that as the accruing indebtedness of the company during July 1 will be nearly $70,000,000 and the earnings are constantly decreasing it is proper in the interest of the holders of the first mortgage bonds that the first mortgage be foreclosed. The mortgage represents $32,000,000, and the main line of the road which it covers is not expected to sell for that amount. This will wipe out all other indebtedness, including the government's for $33,532,000, which will be a dead loss.

At the local headquarters of the company it was admitted the petition would be filed to-morrow. Senator Thurston will be present as the representative of the receivers, who are expected to be retained under the pending petition until the details connected with the foreclosure are completed. It was declared at the headquarters that unless the present session of congress took immediate measures to adjust the government's indebtedness against the Union Pacific the foreclosure would be forced and the government have nothing to interest itself further in the affairs of the company.

Those interested in protecting the interests of the government, however, assert that the proposed litigation is in the nature of a coercive measure, and intended to force congress to accept one of the bills now pending in the house for the settlement of the company's indebtedness. The Reilly measure looking to the extension of the government's indebtedness fifty years on a more favorable basis is preferred. It is said in Omaha that the petition to be filed at St. Louis was prepared in the local headquarters, and that the whole matter is well understood between the alleged conflicting interests as intending to force congress to terms through the fear that the government will lose its entire interests unless it does agree to the Reilly bill.

General Solicitor Thurston stated yesterday Mr. Anderson's proposition as to assessing the stock of the company and extending the government lien for fifty years at 2 per cent was the fairest scheme which could be devised for the protection of the government debt. He thought it would prove acceptable to the stockholders, as it would wipe out the first mortgage indebtedness and make the government interests a first mortgage on the property.

FOR UNION PACIFIC SETTLEMENT.

House Committee at Washington Discusses the Company's Proposals.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The house committee on Pacific roads yesterday considered the propositions for a settlement made recently by a representative of the Union Pacific. Francis L. Stetson explained more fully the views of the company. From the tenor of the talk it seemed improbable that any radical changes from the plan in the Reilly bill will be made, although minor amendments are under consideration. The company's proposal that the rate of interest be reduced from 3 to 2 per cent did not seem to find much favor. The Reilly bill provides that in the event of default of any payment for ninety days the entire debt matures, but an amendment was added making it operative at the option of the secretary of the treasury. Half an hour was consumed in debating a proposal that the government assume the first mortgage of the Union Pacific, which with the application of the sinking fund to its payment so far as it will leave a debt of $20,000,000. It was argued from the company's standpoint that the company will be obliged to pay 6 per cent on this while the government could carry it at 2 per cent or 2½ and the saving in interest be applied directly to the government debt.

Revolution in Progress—Faure The French President.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—It is rumored here and at Paris that a revolution is in progress in Greece and the king has abdicated the throne.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—Faure was elected president of France by the national assembly yesterday.

A majority of the 884 members of the assembly is necessary to elect. The following are the official figures for the first ballot:

M. Henri Brisson, 344; M. Felix Faure, 216; M. Waldeck Rousseau, 196. The number of scattering votes was not known.

As soon as the figures were announced M. Waldeck-Rousseau retired in favor of M. Felix Faure.

On the second ballot Faure polled 430 votes to 361 votes polled by his nearest opponent, Brisson, president of the chamber of deputies. The socialists protested violently when the result of the ballot was made known.

After all the formalities of announcing the result of the second ballot had been concluded the president of the assembly and the cabinet ministers repaired to the room of Challemeil-Lacour, where M. Dupuy formally read the minutes of the meeting. Faure and Challemeil-Lacour then made short speeches.

M. Faure at once took the train at the Versailles station and arrived at the St. Lazare station at 9 o'clock. A majority of the senators and deputies had preceded him. Gardes republicains formed a guard of honor at the St. Lazare station, where barriers had been erected owing to the enormous throng of people that had gathered outside awaiting the arrival of the new president of the republic. All the windows looking upon the station were filled with spectators. The utmost enthusiasm was shown by the people. The cheers of the throng massed along the footways did not cease until the carriage of the president reached the palace of the Elysee. Faure constantly doffed his hat in response to the enthusiastic acclamations of the multitude.

The members of the cabinet last night placed their resignations in the hands of President Faure, but will continue temporarily the direction of affairs. The socialist deputies met and issued a manifesto characterizing Faure as the candidate of the rallied and reactionary parties, elected president against the candidate of all the republicans. Pending the formation of a new cabinet the minister of justice will attend to the business of the ministry of marine, while the ministry of commerce will assume the direction of the ministry of public works.

M. Faure will inaugurate his presidency by placing 20,000 francs ($4,000) in the fund for the relief of the poor of Paris.

MADISON, Jan. 18.—The legislature after brief sessions this morning adjourned until Tuesday afternoon, although objections were made to so long an adjournment. CULLOM RENOMINATED.

The Illinois Senator Chosen by Republicans to Succeed Himself.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 18.—Shelby M. Cullom was last night a third time nominated as the candidate of the republican party of Illinois for the United States senate by 103 votes to 21 for Willits. The joint caucus was held in the hall of the house of representatives, and being open to the public for the first time in history, the galleries were crowded. Senator Berry at 8:05 o'clock called the caucus to order and nominated Representative John W. White as chairman of the caucus. The nomination prevailed by acclamation. Chairman White made a short speech, and then on motion of Representative Needles the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house were made secretaries of the caucus. On the call of the roll of the two houses thirty-three senators and ninety-one representatives responded. The only absentee was Representative McKinsie, who was called home by serious illness in his family.

Senator Coon presented a resolution, which was adopted, providing for a roll call and declaring that the candidate carrying a majority of the votes cast should be declared the choice of the caucus for senator. The chairman announced that the nominations were now in order, and Senator O. F. Berry of Hancock took the floor and nominated Senator Cullom. After the enthusiasm which followed Senator Berry's speech had subsided Senator Anthony of Cook took the floor to nominate George S. Willits. Representative Cochran seconded the nomination of Senator Cullom. Representative Hogan seconded the nomination of Willits. Representative Merriam followed with a second for Cullom. At the close of Representative Merriam's remarks there were loud cries for roll call.

The senators were first called, the vote resulting: Cullom, 26; Willits, 7. The result of the house vote was: Cullom, 77; Willits, 14. Total: Cullom, 103; Willits, 21.

Chairman White announced "Shelby M. Cullom had received 103 votes and George S. Willits 21 on joint ballot, and I declare Mr. Cullom the republican caucus nominee for United States senator." Senator Anthony moved that Shelby M. Cullom's nomination be made unanimous. The motion was seconded by Kent and Hogan and was carried.

Chairman White appointed Senators Fisher and Anthony and Representatives Shanahan, Fletcher and Challa-combe to notify Senator Cullom of the action of the caucus. They retired and a moment later appeared with Senator Cullom and Mr. Willits amid wild applause from both the house and galleries.

When the applause had ceased Mr. Cullom stepped forward to the speaker's desk and made a most eloquent speech. Mr. Willits, the defeated candidate, also addressed the caucus.

NOTES ARE TO BE MET WITH THE $7705.30

MURPHY MONEY DISPOSED OF BY ALDERMEN.

First Obligation to be Cancelled Amounts to $2,500—Difficulties Among the "Owl Police" Called to the Attention of the City Fathers By Mayor Thoroughgood.

A special meeting of the common council was held last evening to dispose of the $7,705.30 paid into the treasury by ex-Treasurer Murphy's bondsmen. Mayor Thoroughgood said: "I have called this special meeting for the purpose of your making final disposition of the money received from the bondsmen of ex-Treasurer Murphy."

"This shortage has been one of those unpleasant things that very many cities and some states have had, and are having to contend with this minute."

"Since this investigation commenced last April, this matter has consumed much time, very many extra sessions of the common council and many additional ones by the finance committee. Every possible opportunity has been given Mr. Murphy and his bondsmen to counteract the findings of Mr. Card, the accountant, but none were found. What demand was made upon the bondsmen was what was absolutely in sight. Very many other matters of finance could not be adjusted for lack of proof."

Room For a Contest.

"The remarks of Mr. Jeffris I agree with. There were good grounds for litigation between the city and the bondsmen of Mr. Murphy, based upon the signing of a yearly bond, and by the city being derelict in causing an audit at the proper time. These and other reasons might have caused quite an expensive litigation. At the same time I believe the city could have got their demands. The bondsmen, however, have done all that could be desired, and have reimbursed the city as per its loss to an amount satisfactory to the council."

"To the common council I wish to say, there was only one way left for you and that was to do as you have done. Perhaps there were mitigating circumstances as regarded the bondsmen but none toward ex-Treasurer Murphy. The council was asked for a more easy settlement, but you, as members of the council, could not compromise. These matters are not the same as private ones. That money belongs to the tax payers, and as such the common council would not have been justified in coming to such a conclusion."

Other Shortages Unsettled.

"There is yet an unsettled shortage and the work of the finance committee is not ended. I understand the $917.10 that was understood as not paid to Treasurer Murphy was paid. No matter how our sympathies may go, you are bound as guardians of the city's interests to make further demands on the parties where such demands are legal. The police investigation has not as yet been reported upon. These things should be cleared up as early a date as possible. I feel pleased that this unpleasant state of things is so far settled without more serious consequences to ex-Treasurer Murphy. To Mr. Murphy I will say, the common council has taken no unfair opportunities. To the tax payers I will say, the earlier ex-city treasurer's crude and unbusiness-like way of transacting financial matters is ended, and believe that what has developed will be for the general interest of Janesville for all time to come. I wish you now to make final disposition of the money now paid over. We have several thousand dollars drawing interest borrowed to pay current expenses. I do not know of a better place to put it than by taking up notes to the amount."

On motion of Alderman Child the money was ordered placed in the general fund.

Trouble Among "Owl Police."

Mayor Thoroughgood took occasion at this point to call attention to the unpleasantness among the "owl" policemen, and said:

"There seems to have been some unpleasantness in our police department. I have that matter under investigation. I do not, nor have I ever considered the night police of much value, and believed the officers could be dispensed with without injury to the quietness of the city. However, I have not as yet concluded as to what steps to take. These brawls in which the city officers are mixed up to not read well in a paper, and will not be tolerated."

Alderman Baines, chairman of the finance committee, stated that the city had a $2,500 note coming due January 22, and was in favor of paying this from the money received from the bondsmen, and using the balance to pay notes as they become due. On motion of Alderman Child the $2,500 note was ordered paid, and the question relating to the other indebtedness was referred to the finance committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

O. J. KENDALL ONLY A WITNESS
Janesville Man Was Not Mixed Up in the Portland Murder Case.

For some days past, rumors have been flying about town concerning the part Oscar J. Kendall was playing in a murder case at Portland, Oregon. Kendall used to live here and at Hanover, and was well known at both places. The rumors have done Mr. Kendall an injustice, as will be shown by the following letter from John W. Minto, chief of police. The letter was written to Mrs. Eva B. Childs, of Hanover, and stated that he, having heard of the rumors, took the liberty of writing, and continuing it said:

"Mr. Kendall has not been in any way or manner connected with the said trial except as a reputable and honorable citizen. He possessed certain knowledge connected with the parties on trial and went before the grand jury and afterward before the trial jury told the truth as a witness for the state, like any other good citizen would be expected to do."

"And I still further desire to state that you cannot find, in my judgment any honest law abiding citizen in the community who will not say that Mr. Kendall is a good responsible and law abiding citizen and has been such ever since he has resided in this city. I write this letter simply as a matter of justice to Mr. Kendall and his friends, some of whom, I am told, reside in your vicinity."

Chief of Police.

G. H. BACKENSTOE EXPIRES IN A LONELY LOFT.

Old Man Stricken While at Work at His Trade of Painter—His Knock Finally Attracted Attention—N. L. Greenman Dies From Injuries Received in a Runaway.

Evansville was startled by two deaths yesterday.

First came that of George H. Backenstoe who expired very suddenly and under peculiarly sad circumstances.

Then word reached the city concerning the demise of N. L. Greenman who lived near the village, his death being due to an accident that occurred the day before.

Mr. Backenstoe was at work on the second floor of Evans' paint shop when he was suddenly stricken with uric blood poisoning. Being unable to help himself, he attempted to summon aid by rapping on the glass in the window. At length his signals were heard by people who were passing but when they rushed upstairs to the room where Mr. Backenstoe was working they found him unconscious. He did not rally and soon afterward the breath left his body and his troubles were over. Mr. Backenstoe when about twenty years of age came to Cookville about the year 1845 and since that time has resided almost continuously in Rock county. His wife, four daughters and a son are left to mourn his loss.

Following closely came the announcement of the death of Mr. Greenman who was an old and respected farmer residing three miles northwest of the village. His death yesterday was from the effect of injuries received by being run over with a loaded wagon. His leg was badly crushed and death came in about twenty-four hours. He was about sixty-five years old.

FULTON HAS SOME FAST HORSES

Baby Bunting and Santha Tanha Are Doing Well—Other News Notes

FULTON, Jan. 18.—Fulton has long been noted for speedy horses and at present there are around here some speedy animals that give promise of blooming into "cracker jacks" to use the track phrase. George Murwin's Baby Bunting and William Bigger's Santha Tanha have both made records that will entitle them to go in faster classes in the future. Spaff Allen also has some younger horses that will be worked for speed the coming season.

The lecture given by S. R. Titus of Beloit, was not well attended. The speaker gave many thoughts for voters of Rock county to consider. Mrs. G. S. Dodge intends going to Elkhorn soon to spend the rest of the winter with Mr. Dodge who is canvassing that part of the state for Doolittle & Company's nursery. Miss Marion Green has a new organ from G. D. Bliss. William Bigger is building a new road cart that will be a good one.

Mrs. Bentley is no better; Murwin Bros. have their ice houses filled. Hoffman & Jones are filling their ice house. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee were in Janesville Tuesday on business. Frank and James Sayer have been buying quite plentifully of turkeys and chickens this season have about finished buying. Orpha Fessenden's baby is very sick with stomach trouble. Dr. Henry Palmer of Janesville was called here last Friday by Dr. McManus to see James Stewart's baby who has been so sick.

They performed an operation upon the child and it is getting better. Fred Ten Eyck came home Friday last and stayed until Tuesday. He is at work in a creamery at Milton and likes the business. E. D. Bliss the hustler sewing machine and organ man from Milton is seen quite often in our town of late. He passed through here Thursday with a fine piano for Miss Leino. Last Friday and Saturday we must have received the benefit of a western blizzard that they did not need west for the wind blew, snow flew and mercury dropped down to fifteen below in a short time. Our high school is an institution to which our citizens point with pride and many a graduate from it has been admitted to the freshman class of the State University and colleges throughout the country. Under the present management it bids fair to prepare many more students for a place in the higher institutions of learning. S. C. Brown's little girl Ethel is very sick with lung fever. Dr. McChesney is in attendance. Miss Mable Lee was home from school over Sunday. Mrs. W. H. Hill came up from Janesville Monday to see her mother who has been quite sick with grip. She returned Tuesday and Webb accompanied her home after a visit here since Christmas.

Woodmen To Jollify at Shopiere.

Fonda are rejoicing over the arrival of a little girl baby. Thomas Athinson is attending school at Beloit. Mr. Jacobs of Iowa, has been visiting relatives and friends in this place. John Weirick has filled his ice houses with splendid ice.

Giles Fonda is very sick with pneumonia. Mrs. Ed. Case, formerly of this place, now of Irving Park, who has been very sick for some time, is much better. Whooping cough is spreading in this place.

CHURCH NEWS FROM OLD MILTON

Union Revival Awakens Interest—Relief For Nebraska Sufferers.

MILTON, Jan. 18.—The union revival meetings at the S. D. B. church are quite well attended and a good degree of interest is being manifested. The King's Daughters will serve an oyster supper at the S. D. B. church Monday evening from 5:30 to 8:30 for the benefit of the Nebraska sufferers. The object is a worthy one. Dr. H. Lummis, D. D. of Lawrence University, will give the fourth lecture in the Popular Course at the Methodist church next Wednesday evening, the subject being "Philological Discussions." The doctor is an accomplished scholar and competent to make his lecture very interesting. Go and hear him. Admission 25 cts. Lecture at 7:30. K. W. Tanner ought to be "in it."

His nephew, Dr. H. B. Tanner, mayor of Kaukauna, has been appointed state oil inspector. S. S. Osborn is at Madison as a member of the federal grand jury. The business men's association met at G. A. R. hall Thursday evening. Captain F. C. Maxson and wife of Milwaukee, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rice this week. Professor E. B. Swift of Rochester, New York, the noted microscopist, was a visitor at A. J. Well's, this week. Editor E. H. Spence, of the Genoa Junction Journal, was a Milton visitor this week. He reports a good business.

The roads are in fine condition and a few inches of snow would make excellent sleighing. The heating arrangements in the Congregational church are being overhauled with the hope of more comfort in the future. The bank of Milton makes this statement for the year ending Jan. 8, 1895: Resources—cash in bank, $10,078.76; bills, money loaned, $35,067.44; expense, etc., $1,247.60; real estate, $3,000; capital paid up, $15,000; cash, $4,317.96. Liabilities—capital stock, $30,000; profit and loss account, $1,500.97; due depositors, $37,310.79.

A man from Genesee wishes to rent quarters here and start a store. It seems as if the territory is pretty well pre-empted already. Many here are afflicted with colds and light attacks of the grippe are not uncommon. Edward T. Hamilton has gone to Harper City, Kansas, where he will visit his son, Eugene for some time. Miss Williams of the kindergarten department of the public school has been ill and unable to attend to her duties this week.

STREET CARS LAID UP FOR A WEEK

Five Inch Solid Steel Crank Pin Gave Way Last Night.

Janesville's street cars will not run this week as the result of an accident that happened last night and in the mean time people will walk. The accident was the breaking of a five inch steel pin that was big enough to hold up the whole of Janesville if it could be balanced on the end. It connected the crank of the big engine with the machinery and when it gave away the cars were powerless. Nearly all of them were handy to the power house and were hauled in with teams without much trouble. Superintendent Proudfoot thinks it will take a week to repair the damage as the pin has to be sent here from Providence, Rhode Island.

AND GOLD WAS STILL DROPPING

An Old Copy of Brick Pomeroy's Democrat Comes to Light.

Out of the wreckage into which the daily papers are whirled as soon as read there has been rescued a copy of "Brick" Pomeroy's La Crosse Democrat of March 15, 1865. The draft was going on, and Brick appealed vigorously to everyone to help La Crosse fill her quota. He remarks that he has his eye on some men who aren't tooting the mark. Another item that was a familiar one in those days is the statement that "gold is still dropping and touched $1.84."

ROCK SAVES $54,418 BY HER ASYLUM

FIVE YEARS' TEST PROVES THE PLAN'S ECONOMY.

Had Insane Patients Been Boarded Away from Home the Cost Would Have Been Fifty Thousand Dollars—Trustee Gunn's Report Is Full of Value.

Rock county has saved $54,418 in five years by having its own asylum. Trustee Gunn stated this fact to the county board yesterday afternoon, his report being as follows:

Statement of receipts and disbursements of Rock county insane asylum and almshouse from 1889 to September 30, 1894 inclusive:

1889.	Receipts.....	$ 8,907 42
	Disbursements.....	9,615 45
	Credit to asylum.....	$ 191 97
1890.	Disbursements.....	8,925 32
	Receipts.....	8,258 43
	Cost to county.....	$ 566 29
1891.	Disbursements.....	6,442 77
	Nine months' receipts.....	5,772 17
	Cost to county.....	670 60
1892.	Disbursements.....	9,225 32
	Receipts.....	8,821 55
	Cost to county.....	403 77
1893.	Disbursements.....	8,914 40
	Receipts.....	7,971 87
	Cost to county.....	942 63
1894.	Disbursements.....	10,534 63
	Receipts.....	9,388 28
	Cost to county.....	1,146 35
Summary.....		$ 3,730 14
Asylum credit.....		191 97
Total cost to county....		$3,538 17

Therefore, in accordance with this statement, it shows that it costs Rock county $3,538.17 more than received from the time stated.

In the above figures the $2,000 for furniture is omitted, neither is benefit of increase of inventory included. Inventory for 1889 was $7,705.45, for 1894 $10,671.84. It must also be considered that the figures herein include the clothing and board of inmates of the almshouse. Now, adding the sum of $2,000 appropriated for furniture to the $3,538.17 we have the sum of $5,538.18 and taking $2,969.39 difference of inventory of 1889 and 1894, from the above sum it will show to have cost the county $2,568.78 for the time stated, a sum scarcely sufficient to board the inmates of almshouses the nine months mentioned. Figuring on a basis of 104 inmates of the insane asylum five years and nine months the county has saved by having its own asylum about $54,418.00. WM. GUNN, Sec.

A SUMMER BLIZZARD WAS GOOD.

Plot Was Just a Peg Upon Which Some Specialties Were Hung.

"A Summer Blizzard" pleased a good-sized audience at the Myers Grand last night and was interpreted by a good company. There is no plot to the performance, it being just enough to form a framework upon which to hang a number of good specialties. There were no objectionable features to the performance and it merited the large audience that it drew.

"Yield Not to Misfortune."

I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus Geo. Shultz, Rahway, N. J.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

We defy the factory or the trade to show that we are not selling the Marzuff line at exactly what we paid for it. We pay no attention to supposed cost sales. Some people do mightily well to get cost. We would advise them to take any offer. Old plunder made before the war ought to be sold cheap. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

BLOOD BELONGS TO FRANCE.

Orleans Issues a Manifesto to the Friends of France.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 18.—The duke of Orleans, pretender to the throne of France, issued a manifesto yesterday. It was addressed to Senator Buffet and dwells upon the dangers of the present crisis, asserting that the president's letter of resignation is an indictment of the present constitution. A republic in France, the duke says, can never be other than a provisional regime. He adds:

"The hour is near at hand when the country will wish to return to the form of government which was the glory of its past and is the guarantee of its future."

Continuing, the manifesto says: "My life and blood will belong to France; to that France which my ancestors made great and respected. That will be the work of to-morrow. The task of to-day will be to overcome immediate danger."

The manifesto concludes with an appeal to the friends of the monarchy to vote for the candidate who is best able to maintain internal order, social peace, and France's honor abroad.

Says Faure is an Amiable Man.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The news of the election of M. Felix Faure as president of France was a surprise to the members of the French legation here.

Ambassador Patenotre said: "No doubt M. Faure will form a cabinet containing a number of the same men who were in the last one. This is not unusual in France. M. Faure is a man of middle age, tall and handsome. He is amiable and is much liked personally."

The City of Liege.

Liege is a city of wealth and industrial activity, and employing as many horses as any other town of its size in Europe, and yet for every horse two dogs are to be seen in harness in the streets. They are to be met at all hours of the day, but in the early morning the boulevards are literally alive with them. Traffic (mostly women) with gaily-painted carts drawn by well-fed dogs are then seen striving to be first in the market-place. A pretty, bareheaded Walloon peasant girl moving briskly at the side of a flower cart drawn by a stalwart mastiff is a pleasing vision to the early riser. But the gardener is not alone, the butcher also, the baker, the grocer—common carriers of all kinds, indeed—engage his services. His step is so much quicker than that of a horse that he will in an hour cover twice the distance, and carry with him a greater burden in proportion to his size.

Setting it Right.

The director of a Chicago bank tells about how his wife overdrew her account at the bank. "I spoke to her about it one evening," says he, "and told her she ought to adjust it at once. A day or two afterward I asked her if she had done what I suggested. 'Oh, yes,' she answered; 'I attended to that matter the very next morning after you spoke to me about it. I sent the bank my check for the amount I had overdrawn!'"

What College Girls Cost.

The girls are flocking to college and papas are handing out money. A clever girl can live at Vassar on $700 a year or can spend $2,500. At Wellesley $600 upward is the figure for a year. Mount Holyoke, $300 to $500. Almost all the colleges are crowded with freshmen, and hard times don't seem to interrupt girls' education.

There Is No Excitement in Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—In spite of the political crisis there is hardly a trace of excitement in this city and a casual glance at the newspapers would never suggest that such a sensational event as the resignation of the president had crowded close upon the heels of the fall of the ministry. English and German newspapers comment favorably on the coolness with which the Parisians have accepted the situation.

CURES OTHERS

Mrs. WILLIAM ROBERTS, Bridgeport, N. Y., writes: "If I had not taken your Medicine, I would not be here now. The doctors did me no good, I was just a mere skeleton, could not eat, I would have awful pain in my stomach—pain in my side, bowels and chest; soreness in my back and womb; was weak, nervous, and could not sleep. After I took your 'Favorite Prescription,' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I commenced to improve. In two weeks could walk about the house—could eat—did not have any more pain in my stomach—threw away my morphine powders. When I first commenced taking the medicine it made me feel worse. I was hoarse, could not speak aloud for three days; as I got better my pains and bad feelings left me and I could sleep good; my nerves got better. Before I took your medicine I kept my bed four months—got worse all the while. I am now quite fleshy and can work all day."

SALOON CASE TRIED IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Bennett Grants James Dee a $30 Judgment to Cover "Necessaries" Bought by L. Platts—Berlin Machine Company Suit—Lecture to Housekeepers.

JUDGE BENNETT came near having to decide today how much of a saloon-keeper's wares are "necessaries" in a young man's case. James Dee, whose saloon is on West Milwaukee street near the Five Points, sued L. Platts for $30 on account. Platts did not appear in his own defense, and the only testimony offered by the plaintiff was that the $30 was due for "necessaries." Had there been a contest the lawyers were looking forward to an interesting ruling on what the term "necessaries" really includes. As it was a judgment for the full amount was rendered, and costs went with the judgment.

A well dressed woman passed through Janesville on a Chicago & Northwestern train the other night and from her appearance it would not be suspected that she was beating her way. Such was the case however and she did succeed in getting from Beloit to Evansville. There the conductor refused to carry her farther without a ticket and put her off the train. On being ejected she fell on her knees and begged piteously to be carried to Mendota, and the fare, eighty-two cents was raised by passing the hat.

Child Harold All Right.

She was a gushing young girl. She had arrived at the age when she was greatly interested in the flights of love-sick poets. She had been perusing Byron's "Child Harold," and was meditating over several obscure passages. Suddenly she asked her papa, who was reading the stock reports of the evening paper, and was deeply engrossed in worldly things:

"Papa, what do you think of Byron's 'Child Harold'?"

"Oh, he's all right," responded the old man; "as good as any of the rest of Byron's boys."—Truth.

Indiana License Measure.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 18.—Chairman Nicholson of the house committee on Temperance introduced a bill yesterday which is the most severe upon the liquor sellers which has ever been introduced in the Indiana legislature. It is expected to provoke a lively contest. The bill reappportioning the state for legislative purposes which the senate and house committees on apportionment have agreed upon was introduced in both branches of the generally assembly yesterday.

STAR HITS MANAGER BEHIND THE SCENES

WAR WAGED ON THE OPERA HOUSE STAGE.

"Helen Blazes" Shows She Was Properly Named—W. H. Stoddard Tries to Act as Peacemaker and Is Knocked Ten Feet by a Wealthy St. Louis Man.

"Helen Blazes" was her name on the program. Very much the same was what she raised.

Nobody who saw her frolic about like a sprite thought she had just batted her manager over the head with a six-quart pitcher and was planning in her merry, winsome manner to pound him with a stage prop when she got back in the wings. Those on the stage knew it, however, and knew that unless peace was restored the performance would end in a row and the audience would have to go home.

Nellie Rosebud, the star, and A. H. Hagan, owner of a St. Louis theatre, were the trouble makers. They are the owners of "A Summer Blizzard" Hagan furnishing half the money and the little comedienne the rest when the show started. Hagan is rich enough so he goes out on car platforms every morning and throws silver dollars at the mile posts. He has not been with the "Blizzard" company much but came east Monday and joined the show in Milwaukee. At that time a competent judge estimated his liquid cargo at two paulifas.

By the time the show struck Racine twelve quarts of champagne and a quart and a half of rye had been added to this. In Kenosha little red lizards and hop toads with wings began to dance around him and when Janesville was reached the manager shielded across the sidewalk to avoid an alligator twenty feet long and kicked Miss Rosebud once or twice, under the belief that she was a bull dog.

The Fight Was a Lively One.

This was in front of A. F. Hall & Co's store yesterday afternoon. Miss Rosebud told Hagan she wanted him to keep away, and there was no further trouble until evening. Just before the curtain rose last evening, however, the fun began. Hagan was in the star's dressing room and was very abusive. As long as her name was Miss Rosebud the star remained befittingly meek and forgiving. When she put on her stage gown, however, and became for the moment "Helen Blazes," her temper took a fiery turn. She exhausted her fund of St. Louis repartees and then grabbed the big dressing room pitcher. This she brought down on Hagan's head with a swing that sent him up against the door. He toppled out in a frightened way and made no more fuss until the star stood waiting for her cue. Then he struck at her, but she dodged out upon the stage and made the audience think she had intended to come all the time. Before she went back Manager Stoddard had been called from the ticket office to act as peacemaker.

Peacemaker Got It In the Eye.

"Unless this man leaves me alone I will leave the stage," said Miss Rosebud.

That meant that the performance would end and the audience be turned away.

"Mr. Hagan you can do one of two things," said Stoddard. "You can behave or get off the stage."

Hagan growled something about being "able to buy three or four such theatres every morning before breakfast," but subsided and seemed perfectly peaceful.

After the third act Manager Stoddard went behind the scenes again, saw that everything was quiet, and stood leaning against a timber talking to some of the company. He was tapped on the shoulder and turned his head to see who was behind him.

He never saw. Something landed in his eye, the opera house grew dark and he went fully ten feet before he caught a piece of scenery and saved himself. Hagan, who had taken so cowardly an advantage, tried to follow it up but was prevented. Stage hands held him until Chief Acheson was called and he was started for jail.

Paid $30 For The Blow.

In jail Hagan became penitent at once. He was not locked up, but at Manager Stoddard's request was released after being held for an hour. Friends took him in hand and dosed him with bromides through the night to sober him up. The company left town this morning but before it departed the belligerent manager was seen by a lawyer and gave up $30 for the injury he had inflicted.

Around the theatre today very little was said of the fuss. Manager Stoddard was seen by a reporter but refused to make any statement. One of the employees was not quite so reticent and said:

"The only mistake Stoddard made was in not taking a club and breaking Hagan's back. In the defense of the audience it was necessary that disturbances on the stage be stopped, and nothing was said that anybody could have objected to."

POISON IN FROZEN ORANGES.

One Who Knows Says There Is Danger in Eating Them.

A gentleman who recently returned from Florida says that he saw in many instances cases of frozen fruit in process of being shipped to northern cities, and he observed in particular one consignment of 300 boxes of oranges for Boston. The importance of this statement lies in the fact that orange specialists say that frozen oranges are poisonous, and deaths have been known to occur from eating them. On the occasion of a former freeze in Florida the Massachusetts board of health forbade the importation of frozen oranges as poisonous and dangerous to the public health. This gentleman says that, not only have the orange groves and the vegetable gardens been seriously injured, and in many instances wholly destroyed, but even in the extreme south of Florida the coconut trees and the pineapples have been seriously injured and in some places killed by the frost.

SALES OF LEAF AT GOOD PRICES.

Seven and Eight Cents for the '94 Crop as It Runs.

W. M. Kemmerer of La Prairie sold his tobacco yesterday to Beloit buyers for seven cents in the bundle. Henry Tarrant sold to the same parties his crop of eight acres for six cents. Mr. Kemmerer was told by the Beloit buyers that they proposed to handle the Rock County crop this year. One party wants 1,600 cases.

BURGLARS DODGED THE "OWL" POLICE

NORCROSS & DOTY MILL EN- TERED LAST NIGHT.

Thieves Pried a Plank In the Floor Loose After Which They Had Clear Sailing—Smashed the Cash Drawer and Got But a Few Cents—Police Have a Clue.

Burglars dodged the "owl" police last night and "got in their work" at the Norcross & Doty mill at the foot of Dodge street. They smashed the cash drawer, getting a few nickels and pennies, and then left.

Ed Doty was the first to discover the burglary when he opened the office this morning, and found his desk in which the money drawer is located, cut and smashed.

"I went back into the shelter room and found a long plank had been raised. Then I realized what had been going on in the night," he said. "They did not get much of anything, as there was only a little small change in the drawer."

The burglars crawled under the mill, raised the plank of the floor, after which they got into the office by the inner door. After trying to cut the lock from the cash drawer, they discovered an easier way and knocked the bottom out. No attempt was made to blow the safe or disturb anything else in the office.

"They may have been here before," said Mr. Doty, "but never succeeded in getting enough to pay for their trouble."

"I think that last night's work was that of a crowd of youngsters who are housed on South River street," said Chief Acheson, "and it will be an easy matter for us to get them."

Opposites.

"Miss Uppington," said the young man, "I perceive from your conversation that you favor a high protective tariff."

"Emphatically," replied she.

"On the other hand, I believe in absolute free trade."

"I observed that."

"You regard the income tax with animosity?"

"I do."

"While I am convinced of its benefits."

There was a period of silence while he pondered. Then he remarked with hesitation:

"Miss Uppington."

"Yes," she replied, with the subtle rising inflection which denotes encouragement.

"Don't you—that is to say—don't you think—"

"What, Charles?"

"That it would be a good idea if we were paired?"—Washington Star.

Wasn't He Justified?

Wibble—I hear that young Jinx has broken his engagement with Miss Flyer.

Wabble—Yes, and it's odd the way it happened, too. You see, he left a photograph at the house, so she could whisper a "good night" into it just before she turned out the gas, and send it to him through the post. Well, you see, in the excitement of the affair she forgot to shut the machine off, and he not only received her words, but a large and varied assortment of snores that had accumulated while she was asleep.—Tit-Bits.

Knew Delight When He Saw It.

A teacher in a primary school in East 125th street a few days ago asked the pupils of a class over which she presides to compose a sentence in which the word "delight" occurred.

A seven-year-old colored boy—the only one of darkton persuasion in the class—held up his hand.

"Well?" asked the teacher.

"Please, teacher," said he, "when I does gwine to bed at night I always puts out de light."—N. Y. Herald.

The Youth—Nothing.

She Apologized for Her Father.
 "Angelina," said the youth, hotly, as he entered the parlor, "it remains for you to say whether our mutual friendship shall continue or be ended here at once."
 "What is the matter?" asked the beautiful girl, opening her lovely dark blue orbs to their widest extent.

As to Appearances.

 "Since you ask me the question, sir," answered the fat passenger, "I am compelled to say that I think you do."
 "And you look as if you might possibly be a gentleman and a man of decent horse-sense," retorted the other. "How deceptive appearances sometimes are!"—Chicago Tribune.

ONE WAY TO REGARD IT.

Lucy—If your fiancé wished you to go for an evening drive, and invited a half blind old lady as chaperon, how should you regard it?
 Madge—I should regard it as an opportunity to be embraced.—Truth.

Lot Thinks It Out.
 Little Dot—I couldn't make out what the preacher was talkin' about.
 Little Dick—It was a queer sort of a story about a man what prepared a big dinner for a lot of company, but nobody came, and so he sent out into the highways and byways and got strangers and beggars to come.
 Little Dot (thoughtfully)—I s'pose they had no ice in those days and things wouldn't keep.—Good News.

A Choice of Evils.
 City Editor—Here, Mr. Faberpusher, take this time and go out and buy yourself a cigar right away.
 Faberpusher—Why—why, Mr. Boss, I thought you detested the odor of tobacco.
 City Editor—So I do. I abominate it, but I have observed that when an idiot is smoking a cigar he has to stop whistling "Sweet Marie," "Washington Post March" and other chestnuts.—Texas Sittings.

Mixed as to the Qualifications.
 First Pugilist—Didn't yer never think of tryin' de stage?
 Second Pugilist—Well, yer see, I ain't married.
 First Pugilist—Wot's that got to do with it?
 Second Pugilist—Don't yer have to be divorced?—Brooklyn Life.

A Request.
 "Henry," she said, thoughtfully.
 "What is it?" responded the worried business man rather shortly.
 "I wish you could rearrange your business a little bit."
 "How?"
 "So as to be a bear on the stock exchange and not at home."—Judge.

Carrying Out the Figure.
 "A human life," said the sentimental young man, "is a poem—tragic, comic, sentimental, as the case may be."
 "Yes," sighed Miss Passeigh, "and so many of us are rejected manuscripts."—Washington Star.

Proof of Her Attractions.
 Mr. Inglesby—Is Miss Gaybird really such a charming girl?
 Mrs. Maynewright—She must be. All her girl friends hate her furiously.—Chicago Record.

Her Only Chance.
 Blanche—Clara is deeply interested in hypnotism.
 Lucy—Yes. She's twenty-nine, and she isn't engaged yet.—Brooklyn Life.

Only Way to Get His Money.
 "How can she marry old Croesus?"
 "Because there's no other way to be his widow."—Life.

A Pleasing Variety.
 "Why do you make some of your dumplings small and the others large, Frau Huber?"
 "Because my husband has been complaining lately of having too little change in his diet."—Unsere Gesellschaft.

Bone Crushed to Earth
 Will rise again in the bosom of a dyspeptic wise enough to substitute for the rhenodonic, which have bamboozled him out of his belief in the possibility of cure, the real invigorant and stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The bilious, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the rheumatic alike derive speedy benefit from this helpful botanic medicine. Persons suffering from indigestion will gain no positive permanent good from the fiery unmedicated stimulants of commerce, too often used recklessly. The Bitters is immeasurably preferred to these as a tonic, since its pure basis is modified by the conjunction with it of vegetable ingredients of the highest remedial excellence. Malaria is prevented and remedied by it, and it infuses vigor into the weak and sickly. A wineglassful three times a day is the average dose.

WOMAN'S TRIALS.

SOME LIGHT ON THE SUBJECT.
So Many Suffer Without Knowing Why. Much Can Be Avoided.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
 So many feel the very life crashed out of them, wake up cheerful and happy, determined to do so much before the day ends, and yet:

Before the morning is very old, the fearful backache or bearing down feeling attacks them, the bravespiritsinks back in affright; no matter how hard they struggle, the "clutch" is upon them, and they sink into a chair, crying, "Oh! why should I suffer so?"

What can I do?
 The answer is ready, your cry has been heard, and a woman is able to restore you to health and happiness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will stop your torture and restore your courage. All your pains come from a deranged uterus or womb.

It is the greatest of all rewards to receive such letters as the following from Miss Louise Müller, who lives at 44 Michigan Ave., in Evanston, Ill. She says:

"As I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and have thereby become entirely well, I am recommending all my lady friends to use it. I am sure it will help them in all cases of womb trouble, leucorrhoea, irregular or painful monthly periods. I am sure it is our best friend. I am so thankful to Mrs. Pinkham for the good she has done me, that I wish every sick woman in America would write to her at Lynn, Mass., and get her advice."

Do It Up? Thanks.

We thought we could suit or rather cloak you. It was the second garment Mrs. Smith looked at. Being a good judge of values and having her mind made up as to about what style of a cloak she wanted, it was an easy matter for Mrs. Smith to decide quickly. She paid us $15 for a $25 coat and went away satisfied that we were doing more than we advertised to do.

THE CREDIT MAN, THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND,

THE RICH MAN'S FRIEND.

How many houses are there in Janesville that will sell to you without money? Not one but Kimball The Furniture Dealer.

Because he does sell on easy payments, he does not charge the man or woman who can pay but a dollar or possibly $5, any more than the man who buys $100 and pays spot cash. The prices both ways are away below any other Furniture dealer in the city. Try and see.
